NUDVAN AGM 2018

AGM at KNP, April 2018

Thanks to the row of regulars and new members who provided more-than-a-quorum for this year's AGM. There wasn't quite enough interest for some new committee members, but it took only minimal arm-twisting to persuade Tony Butler (he of Coromandel Safari Fame) to join our Skype meetings.

KNP was busy with pickers and many other visitors, so we welcomed our Private Function status to hold the AGM, Happy Hour, Dinner and Jan's Light Ent with a minimum of fuss. Thanks KNP- who also provided After AGM afternoon tea.

After Saturday's Happy Hour, we toured around two tables of plates and pots full of an amazing variety of food for our dinner. Dessert was almost a non-event so first in was first served. No complaints were heard.

As we recovered from these gastro delights, Jan challenged our origami skills to construct a frog. In spite of some of us finding ourselves spatially challenged (or unable to read instructions), each table created a frog that 'jumped' into a strategically placed bowl. I have no idea who won, but with jumps ranging from 15 to umpteen it was a lot of fun. Should this become an annual challenge I wonder???. Then things became a little more feral as Jan patiently led us through one of her magnificent quizzes. Four sections, four tables, four winners - very egalitarian.

Breakfast a la the Committee was another highlight.....it's always noisy fun to be part of that creative team....especially with Tony's Microwaved Scrambled Eggs, Alison's unpretty pancakes, BBQ chef's tomatoes, mushrooms, hash browns, bacon and sausages...and even a choice of white or brown toast. Another visitor was unhappy with our kitchen take-over perhaps it's rather intimidating with 20+ chefs and consumers enjoying themselves so early in the morning!

It was another well run, organized event at KNP....and KatiKati provided its share of sun and showers to add to the variety, The warmth is taken for granted.....

Thank You All..... Alison

Coming Events

Mid-Winter Christmas

Mid-Winter Christmas will be held at Waikato Outdoor Society on Saturday 14th July.

Please bring:-

Christmas present, to the value of $5 bought from a charity or op shop. (I'm told the $2 shop has had plenty out of us previously).

Plate to share at pot luck dinner.

Committee members please bring a desert, others please bring a main.

Saturday 14th :-

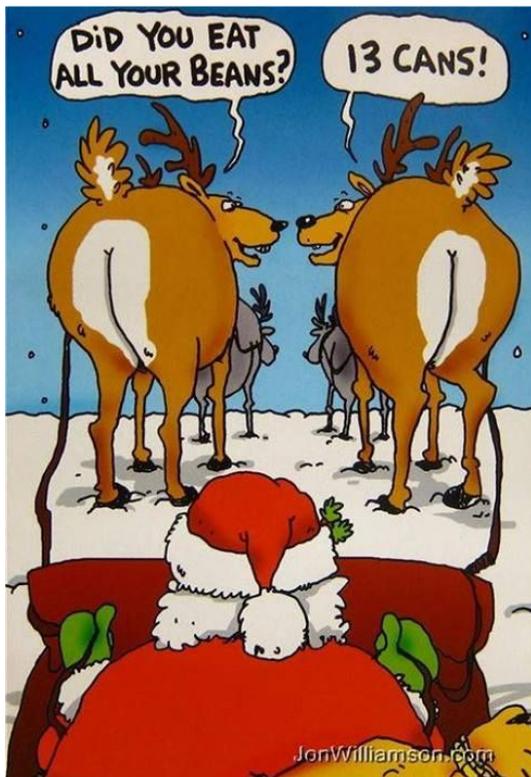

Some games are planned for the afternoon. These may be indoor or outdoor depending on the weather, and numbers present.

Happy Hour at 4:44pm

Dinner 6 ish – Pot Luck Tea

Followed by Santa. I've spoken to the old chap and he tells me he can make a fast trip down to NZ, and is looking forward to meeting us again.

Sunday 15th :-

Nudvan will once again put breakfast on the BBQ

Mid-day, the brave and/or fool hardy are invited to join in WOS annual polar plunge followed by soup n bun lunch.

Nudvan generally goes into hibernation for the cooler months. We are busy planning for the spring. Planning for a Christmas function in November is underway. Also some members are working on a Safari for 2019, while others are looking at a new spot for a Stay Put Rally.

The NZNF AGM 2018 will be held at Wellington Naturist Club. The current plan is for the AGM and New Year celebrations to be at Wellington, followed by a bus trip to other clubs. More details and forms below.

Cheers for now
John & Christine
